

P

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., Feb. 19th, 1885.

A London Smelter, Esq.
Supt. Mint U.S.
Philadelphia

Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 17th instant, stating that you had not received payment for one Silver Life Saving Medal, forwarded to this office on the 29th December last, and for five silver and five bronze Arthur Indian Peace Medals, forwarded on the 21st ult., I have to state that upon inquiry I am informed by the Superintendent of the Life Saving Service that your account for the medal furnished for that service had been inadvertently overlooked, but that a draft for the amount would be sent you tomorrow. And in reference to your account for the Indian Peace, I transmit herewith copy of a letter from the Second Comptroller of the Treasury, ^{stating} that he had certified an account in your favor for the amount, and that in due course of business a draft would be transmitted you.

Very respectfully
Horatio C. Mendenhall

Director.

DM

Washington Dc
February 19th 1885
Burchard

In reference to non payment of 1 Silver Life Saving Medal
forwarded Dec 29th 1884
and 5 Arthur Indian Bean
Medals forwarded Jan 21st
Enclosing letter from Second
Comptroller of Treasury

[Abstract:] In reference to non-payment of Silver Life Saving Medal...

P

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
February 19, 1885

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq.
Supt. Mint U.S.
Philadelphia.

Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 17th instant, stating that you had not received payment for one Silver Life Saving Medal, forwarded to this office on the 29th December last, and for five silver- and five bronze Arthur Indian Peace Medals, forwarded on the 21st ult., I have to state that upon inquiry I am informed by the Superintendent of the Life Saving Service that your account for the medal furnished for that service had been inadvertently over looked, but that a draft for the amount would be sent you tomorrow. And in reference to your account for the Indian Peace, I transmit herewith copy of a letter from the Second Comptroller of the Treasury stating that he had certified an account in your favor for the amount, and that in due course of business a draft would be transmitted you.

Very respectfully,
Horatio C. Burchard
Director.